Regulations concerning the Supply of Photocopies

In order to comply with the current law on Copyright, the Library can only make photocopies for applicants on the following terms:

- 1) The declaration, appended overleaf, must be signed by the person requiring the photocopy. A stamped or typewritten signature, or the signature of an agent is not sufficient.
2) If the name and address of the owner of the copyright are known or can be easily ascertained, the reader must obtain permission from him to have the copy made. This does not apply in the case of a single article in a periodical.
3) In all cases where more than one copy is required (including articles in periodicals), specific permission must be obtained from the owner of the copyright.
